PRIZE WINNERS AT WESTERLY

George H. Lusk and Harold F. Babcock Awarded Highest Honors in High School Prize Speaking—Dissatisfaction with Watch Hill Cars—New Catholic Chapel at Niantic—Miss Alice Mahoney Wins Scholarship—Panhandler Arrested.

Complaints have been so numerous of the inadequate and unsanitary service given the public by the Pawcatuck Valley street railway, that runs dirty and antiquated bus-cars hourly trips on the poorly constructed tracks between the villages of Westerly and Watch Hill, and without result from the existing conditions, that appeal for relief has finally been made to the Westerly Board of Trade.

The committee on traffic and municipal improvement has taken the matter under consideration and will make endeavor to have a betterment of existing conditions. The committee has already outlined a plan of action which will permit the company to give decent service without serious inconvenience, but if this is not done the Board of Trade committee will take the matter up with the town council and demand that the franchise requirements be strictly enforced, or that the company be ordered to remove their tracks from the highway, a power which it is said, the town council reserved when the franchise was granted.

Rev. Peter McConar, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, with the village of Niantic as one of his missions, is having a church edifice of wood constructed in that place which will soon be in readiness for dedication. The pastor has received the hearty co-operation of the Catholics of Niantic, whose pride in the new church building increases as it nears completion. The new church will have a seating capacity of two hundred and fifty.

Pawcatuck people who consider the big billboard in Liberty street a public nuisance have filed protest with the town of Westerly. The billboard is erected on the sidewalk line and is a redaction against civic pride and town government. The billboard is owned by the estate of George Gavitt. Thomas Gavitt of Providence has charge of the property and Selectman in communication with him concerning the leased rights of the owner of the billboard prior to taking decided action towards the abatement of the nuisance.

Arthur Clark, who delivers the mail for Uncle Samuel on rural route No. 1 from the Westerly postoffice, and who has never taken vacation or missed a trip since he commenced the work several years ago, came near spoiling the record on his return trip to the postoffice Wednesday afternoon. When near Oak street his horse fell with a sudden and severe attack of colic. In order to get to the postoffice on scheduled time with his return mail he boarded a trolley car and made a customary report, leaving his trusty steed to the care of others. When he returned the horse was dead.

The act amending the charter of the Westerly Automatic Telephone company, to authorize the increase of capital stock from $100,000 to $200,000, was on the house calendar for action Thursday. On motion of Representative Langworthy the matter was taken from the calendar and returned to the committee on corporations for correction in minor details and for further consideration, the committee desiring to make changes in the general construction of the special act to be proposed for action.

Miss Alice Mahoney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mahoney, of Westerly, and Miss Rose Reilly, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Thomas L. Reilly, of Meriden, students at Mt. St. Joseph seminary, Hartford, have received high honors in competitive examination for a scholarship. The averages were so close that superiority could not be determined and both young ladies were alike honored. They were awarded scholarship which entitles them to four years' course in St. Angelo's college, New Rochelle, N. Y. Miss Mahoney received the basis of her higher education in the parochial school in Pawcatuck and the Elm street school, Westerly.

Charles Dutton, who was arrested recently in Pittsfield, Mass., for begging and held for trial in the superior court under bonds of $75, the police of that city believing that he is a deaf and dumb fakir, arrived in Westerly Friday. He visited the stores and presented a card signed Charles Dutton which read thus: "Kind Friend—Having lost both speech and hearing by a severe attack of fever, I am trying to get an education, so as to become self-supporting. Kindly give what you can."

He was arrested by Chief Bransfield and put through severe tests by the chief and Dr. Scanlon, the tests continuing for nearly two hours, to ascertain whether Dutton was really deaf and dumb. He stood the tests well and if he is shamming he is certainly a good actor. He gave his past history, and answered all questions in writing without the least hesitancy. Dutton will be arraigned in the district court on the charges of begging. He is 22 years of age, of neat appearance and well dressed, and declares that he is innocent of any intentional wrongdoing.

The seventeenth case of diphtheria appeared in Westerly when Luigi Brogardo, father of the children affected with the disease at 74 Pierce street, was taken sick Thursday morning. Thanks for the health officer, physicians and police have succeeded in keeping the disease confined where it originated, in the section of Westerly designated as Little Italy.

There was a large attendance at the annual boys' prize speaking contest of the Westerly High school, held in the school hall, Thursday evening. The order of exercises was as follows: Piano solo, Miss Julia Callahan; prayer, Rev. S. M. Cathcart; chorus, The Heavenly Rebound; recitation, The Stamp Act, Thomas J. Sparrow; recitation, Death of a Traitor, Addison S. Archie; selection from Innocents Abroad, Harold F. Babcock; chorus, Lovely Night, O. Night Divine; recitation, Claudius and Cynthia, D. William Woods; recitation, The Chariot Race, George H. Lusk; recitation, Heroes of the Land of Penn., Raymond U. Crandall; chorus, A Merry Life.

The judges were Mrs. Edward M. Burke of Westerly and Rev. William A. Burdick and Frank Hill of Ashaway. The first prize, $10, was awarded George Lusk, and the second prize, $5, to Harold Babcock.

Representative Langworthy of Westerly presented in the house Thursday an act providing for orchard and nursery inspection, and the suppression of injurious plants and insects. Referred to committee on agriculture.

The condition of Hon. Warren O. Arnold, who was stricken suddenly with an acute attack of Bright's disease, followed by a stroke of paralysis, Tuesday night, showed very slight improvement during Thursday. He is unable to speak, but during periods of semi-consciousness he appears to recognize relatives at his bedside.
